Glendale Glitters – Spirit of Giving Event. Join us from 6-10 p.m., Friday, Dec. 10 and Saturday, Dec. 11 at Murphy Park in Downtown Glendale for the Spirit of Giving Weekend. The holidays are a time of generosity, so what could be better than a whole weekend recognizing those who give back to our community? It'll do your heart good to get into the spirit of giving by paying tribute to those selfless organizations who make our community a better place to live. Support local food banks with our canned food drive for St. Mary's Food Bank. Click here for more information on Glendale's Spirit of Giving Weekend including the weekend's performers.

Glendale Public Safety Memorial Dedication. The community is invited to the dedication ceremony for the new Glendale Public Safety Memorial at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 4, in the Glendale Civic Center Plaza, 5750 W. Glenn Drive. The memorial honors two police officers and one firefighter killed in the line of duty in Glendale. The names of the fallen include:

- Fire Engineer Lester Hillis – September 7, 1974
- Sergeant Pat Campbell – September 22, 1985
- Officer Anthony Holly – February 19, 2007

During the 45-minute ceremony, there will be tributes to each of the men, highlights about the memorial and its unique design, comments from Glendale Mayor Elaine Scruggs and special performances from the Mountain Ridge High School Honor Choir.

The 15-foot-tall bronze memorial features two police officers and two firefighters rescuing a child while connected by an eternal flame. Behind the statue is a 28-foot-long granite wall with plaques of honor with background information on Hillis, Campbell and Holly. Free public parking is available in the Promenade Parking Garage at 58th and Palmaire avenues and Glendale City Hall at 59th Avenue and Glenn Drive.

Dr. Warren H. Stewart, Sr. to Keynote Glendale's 2011 Martin Luther King Jr., Unity Day

Luncheon. Pastor and human rights activist Dr. Warren H. Stewart, Jr. will offer the keynote address at the city of Glendale's 2011 Unity Day Luncheon held in celebration of the life and ideals of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. For the second year, Susan Casper of ABC-15 will emcee the event, which will be held 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 14, at the Glendale Civic Center, 5750 W. Glenn Drive.

Stewart's keynote address will top off a program that includes live entertainment, a chance for the community to come together in celebration, presentation of the Unity Day Youth Art Contest winners and the announcement of the 2011 Promoting Inclusiveness Award winner.

The event planners are accepting nominations for the Inclusiveness Award until 5 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 16. All members of the public are invited to nominate an individual who has made an impact in Maricopa County. To be selected, nominees should go beyond the scope of their jobs to promote inclusiveness in their actions, and exhibit qualities that are consistent with the ideals advocated by Dr. King.

Nomination forms are available by logging on to www.glendaleaz.com/unityday or by calling 623-930-3169.

Reservations are also being accepted for the Unity Luncheon, which attracted overflowing crowds in years past. Organizers expect a full house this year, and urge early registration.

Individual seats for the 2011 Unity Luncheon are $40 per person. Tables of 10 can be reserved at a cost of $400. Individual seats and table reservations can be made at the Glendale Visitor Center, 5800 W. Glenn Drive, Suite 140, or by calling Lorraine Pino at 623-930-2955. Small Stars Youth Sports Clinic. Children ages 4-7 can learn soccer, football and t-ball during the Glendale Parks & Recreation's Small Stars youth sports clinic.

This 6-week, 12-day clinic focuses on fundamentals. The clinic includes practice skill drills, warm up/conditioning, review of rules and short scrimmage games.

Clinic dates are Tuesdays and Thursdays, Jan. 25 through March 3, at the Paseo Sports Complex, 6268 W. Thunderbird Rd. Two sessions are offered: Session I from 5:30-6:30 p.m. and Session II from 6:45-7:45 p.m. The price is $60 for Glendale residents and $70 for non-residents. The price includes a clinic t-shirt, certificate of completion and participation medal or ribbon. Participants must wear gym shoes (no sandals, boots or open toe shoes allowed). A parent or guardian must be present during the entire clinic.

To register, click here or call 623-930-2820 by Jan. 7. For more information on the program, call 623-930-2834.
